Classic story structure

Story frame

- 1) Episodic: Individuals, specific events (small picture)
- 2) Thematic: Systemic issues, trends (big picture)

Define what you want to achieve

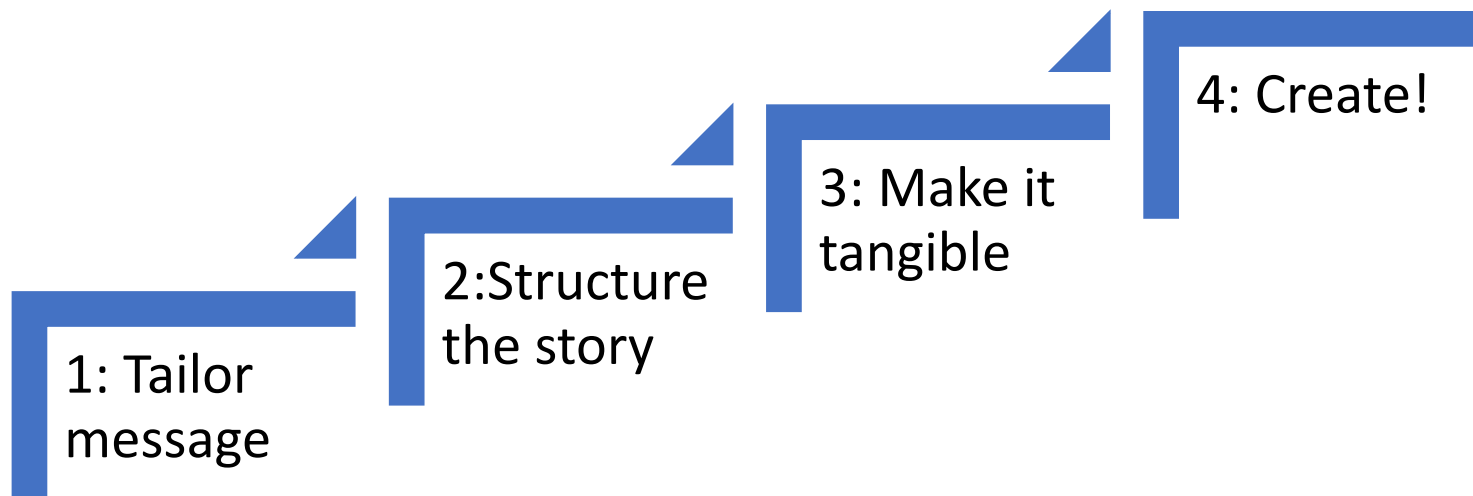

1 Define your audience

2 Set your goal

- ✓ Raise awareness
- ✓ Influence opinions
- ✓ Catalyse specific action

4 steps to prepare your story

TAILOR YOUR MESSAGE

- What are your audience's preconceptions and knowledge gaps?
- What's in it for them?

Thematic framing (big picture)

E.g. focus on:

The burning platform & need for novel approaches

Scale of problem and how it affects people, regions and cities

Solutions that require societal / policy change.

Structure your story

Use Comparisons

Use metaphors

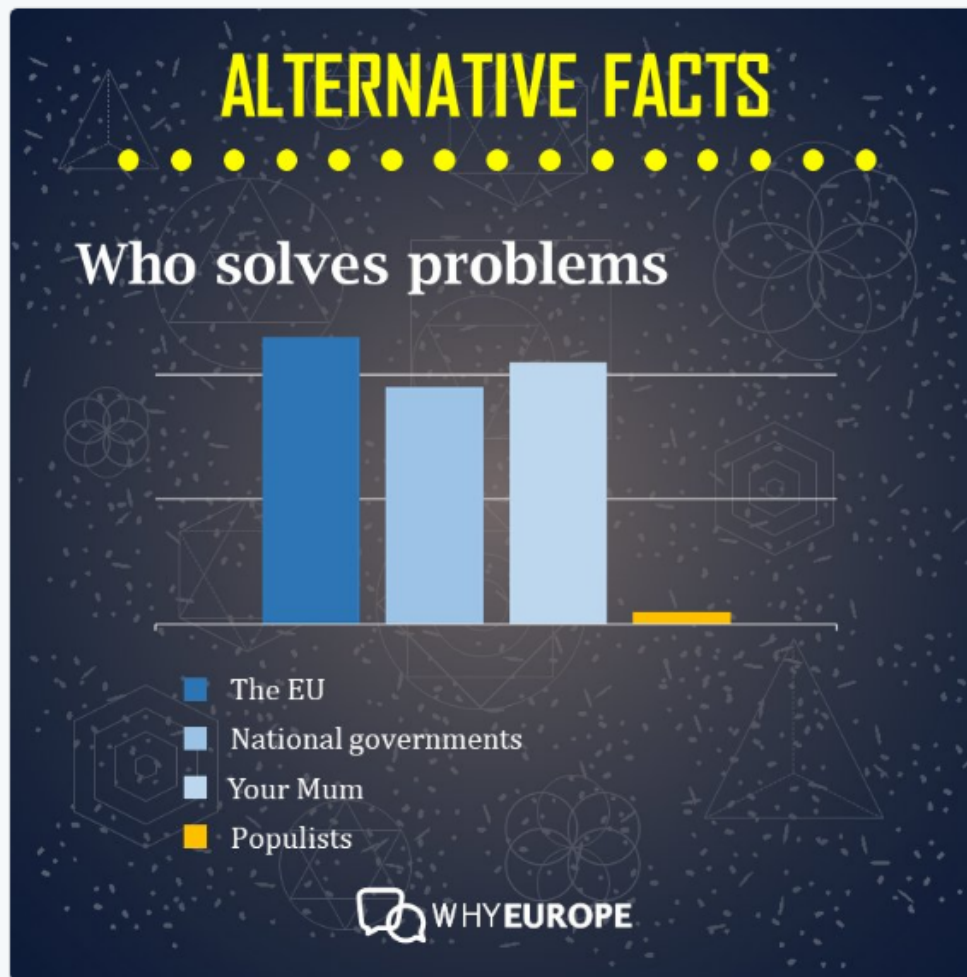

Example: The ozone 'hole'

A photograph showing a dense, tangled fishing net filled with numerous blue plastic bottles and green plastic bags. The net is made of a light-colored, fine-mesh material. The bottles and bags are packed closely together, creating a complex, textured scene. The text "Use visuals" is overlaid in white, sans-serif font across the lower portion of the image.
